CAUTION.—We beg leave to caution purchasers of our choice OLD MONONGAHELA WHISKIES against the deception and petty fraud which is practiced by certain parties in this city and in Baltimore, who have appropriated to themselves exact copies of the Star Brands, long used and designed by us to distinguish our Old Whiskeys. We can assure our friends and customers, that the unrivalled quality, everywhere acknowledged, of our choice OLD WHISKIES, cannot be equalled by these ingenious invaders of our rights.
Our new establishment, Gibsoston Mills, on the Monongahela River, gives us unequalled facilities for making Whiskey of the choicest kind, from malted and kiln-dried grain. Purchasers of our Old Whiskies will please to notice, the words GIBSONTON MILLS and JOHN GIBsox, Soxs & Co., are inserted in the new Brands which we now adopt; and we deem it a duty to our customers and ourselves, to give notice, that we will prosecute and expose any person or persons who may be reafter copy or use our Brands. HAVE engaged in the Manipulation of GU-ANOS, and am now ready to supply the Farmers and Planters of the United States with an article which I would be supplyed to the United States with an article which I would be supplyed to the United States with an article which I would be supplyed to the United States with an article which I would be supplyed to the United States with an article which I would be supplyed to the United States with an article which I would be supplyed to the United States with an article which I would be supplyed to the United States with an article which I would be supplyed to the United States with an article which I would be supplyed to the United States with an article which is the United States with a supplier which is the United States with a supplier which is the United States with a supplier which is the United States which is the United Stat article which I consider superior to anything of the kind which has yet been produced, having an unusual amount I believe, of the valuable ingredients in this article. During my editorship of the "American Farmer," with which until within a few months, I have been connected for 25 years, I have most emphatically urged upon the Farmers and Planters that the mixture of the Ammoniacal Ga-ALEXANDRIA AGENCY OF THE NEW-YORK and (Pernylan) with the Phosphatic (Mexican Columbian, &c.,) was the best and cheapest appli-cation to most crops they could apply. For more general views upon this subject, I refer to the pages of the American Farmer; and also, to my cir-cular just issued (and which will be forwarded to any one desiring it) in which this view is ably sustained by Dr. Bickell, Analytical Chemist, of this

It is intended that it shall reach the highest of crop to which that article is applied, and will sur-pass it as improvement to land. The Agricultural public have been much'imposed upon by all sorts of professed fertilizers, but I have no hesitation in of professed fertilizers, but I have no nestation in saying, that I believe this compound will be found the "Ne Plus Ultra" of anything of the kind which has yet been produced; and with this confidence in its value, I have agreed to introduce it to the public. MISCELLANEOUS READING.

GRADUATED POLITENESS .- Mrs. Helen Carnegy, of Craigo, was a thorough specimen of a certain class of old Scottish ladies. She lived in Montrose, and was arristocratic in her feelings, but on social per as with many burghers of Montrose, or Munross, as it was called. She preserved a nice distinction of addresses, suited to different individuals in the town, according as she placed them in the scale of her consideration. She liked a party at quadrille, and sent out her servant every morning to invite the ladies required to make up the game, and her directions were graduated thus: M'Nelly, you'll gang to Lady Carnegy's and make any compliments, and ask the 'honor' of her ladyship's company, and that of Miss Carnegy's, to tea this evening; and if they canns come, gang to the Miss Mundies, and ask the 'pleasure' of their company; and if they canna come, you may gang to Mass Hunter, and ask the layor of her company; and if she cannna come, gang to Lucky Spark and 'bid' her come."—Dean Ramsey's Reminiscences.

Type setting in the early ages, was not remarkable for its accuracy; in the year 1861 a book of one hundred and seventy two pages was written by a pious Monk, called Anatomy of the Massi: after this work was printed and before it could go into the hands of the binder, the Monk was compelled to append fifteen pages of corrections. All these blunders he attributed to the special instigation of the "devil" who he seemed to think had a desire to defeat the work. This is no doubt the origin of the "Printer's De-

THE RIGHT TO DUN .- No man should be delicate about asking for what is properly due him. If he neglects doing so, he is deficient in that spirit of independence which he should observe in all his actions. Rights, are rights, and if granted, should be demanded. The selfish world is little inclined to give one his own, unless be has the manliness to claim it. The lack of the proper fulfilment of this principle has lost many fortunes, farms, and reputations.

CARDS.-Playing cards are said to have been invented about the close of the 14th century by a Parisian painter, for the amusement of the French King, Charles VI., in his lucid intervals. They were very different in appearance and price then from what they now are. They were gilded, and the figures painted or illuminated. The inventor, (Gringoneur,) sold them at eighteen shillings and eight pence per pack.
